Tour Leaders for Seattle

The Cadet Chief Mate is looking for five 1/C deck and five 1/C engine cadets from CMA to lead tours while in Seattle. The tours will be on August 24th, our second day in Seattle. The tour groups are prospective CMA cadets. We expect about 100 to visit the GOLDEN BEAR. If you're interested please contact Cadet 1/C Sam Rouse.

Seattle Aquarium

Behind-The-Scenes Tour of Seattle Aquarium - Grad Bob Kiel (pr Keel), '81E, has offered to lead free tours of the backroom of the Seattle Aquarium. All you need to do is arrive at the Aquarium at 1000 or 1400 any day and ask for Bob. The Aquarium is visible and in walking distance from the ship.

Port of Seattle Tour

The Seattle and CMA Propeller Clubs in conjunction with the Youth Maritime Academy organized a tour of the Port of Seattle for August 24th at 0930 am. The uniform will be Salt and Peppers. Space is limited so please sign up as soon as possible outside of the ship's office.

Ship's Library Items

Please return all books, software and DVDs to the Ship's Library by the evening of Sunday August 22. If you wish to keep your material until Vallejo please contact the library at TSGBLibrary@csum.edu or x1346. If you have any books, magazines or movies you do not need any more, you can donate them to the library. They can be left on the table in the Library Lounge. Cadets, who still have material out from the library, please return your items by Sunday 2000. Please contact the library if you need additional time.

MARITIME TRIVIA QUESTION FOR THE DAY

How did the word skipper come to refer to the captain of a ship?

See Assistant Commandant Buck if you think you know the answer.

Previous Question and Answer

- A. What was a holystone?
- B. What was a holystone used for?

A holystone was a small cake of sand stone that was used by sailors on wooden sailing ship's to clean the decks. This process of scrubbing the decks with sand stone was referred to as holystoning. Holystoning was a daily chore on old wooden sailing ships and a most undesirable task for all hands.
